What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying?

We should encourage people to vote actively during election time

That the Bharathiya janata party(BJP) and Indian national congress(INC) were the two main political parties in the 2019 lok shba elections, with the BJP emerging as the dominant force.

Its is difficult to determine the exact impact of candidates on the outcome of an election as there are many factors at play

In 2019 Lok

the voting

67.40%.

sabha election

percentage is

That the 2019 lok shaba election in india were higly competitive and saw the emergence of several political juggernauts.

The lok shbha elections in india are one of the largest democratic excercise in the world

Persona's name

Short summary of the persona

Candidates with a strong reputations, public recognition, or a history of successful public service may be more likely to attract voters.

we should make voting awareness among people to increase voting people don't have intention of why to vote and should ask question against politicians to ensure democracy still alives...

The 2019 lok shaba elections in india were higly anticipated and closely watched by political analysts and citizens alike.

Handicapped was not given with improper Transport faculty makes so much frustration during election

There are more problems in election time like improper election conducting faculties and poor transport

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

